INFORMATION ON COLLABORATIONIST ORGANIZATIONS IN OCCUPIED RUSSIA

24 September 1943

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Owing to the scarcity of information about collaborationist organizations in Occupied Russia, the accompanying table is necessarily incomplete. Furthermore, since the material available is almost entirely of Axis origin, the figures on the size of membership are in all probability exaggerated. Vlasov's Army, for example, is not believed to have over 100,000 men, and possibly much less, although Axis sources claim a strength of 300,000 men.
